

New from
Johns Hopkins University Talent Development Secondary!

Nonfiction Connections

Supporting Common Core
with Great Readings in American History

The Civil War

Nine lessons supporting CCSS ELA Standards for Informational Text and Literacy in History/Social Studies for 7th-10th grades

Colonial America

Eight lessons supporting CCSS ELA Standards for Informational Text, History/Social Studies, and Speaking and Listening for 6th-8th grades

These rich lessons extend the use of Joy Hakim's A History of US (recommended as "exemplary informational text" by CCSS):

- Students read and analyze complex nonfiction and informational text, engage in significant text-based discussions and writing activities, and work cooperatively
- Lessons feature engaging, interactive teaching strategies and best practices pedagogy
- Extensive use of primary source documents and other readings reflects the nation's diversity of backgrounds, points of view, and experiences
- Lessons support CCSS for secondary school students
- Manual includes all materials, readings, writing prompts, homework assignments, and interdisciplinary connections

The Revolutionary War

supporting CCSS Standards 6th-8th, 9th-10th grades (available spring 2015)

Available on Amazon

search for Nonfiction Connections + The Civil War or Nonfiction Connections + Colonial America

$25